This Christmas, Shop Local at Acton Market!

This Christmas Season, Acton Market will be the place for all of your shopping. Stroll among the stalls selling homeware, jewellery, African art, clothing and shoes.

Christmas trees will be on sale from Thursday 4th December. The Acton Market will be open EVERY DAY from Thursday December 18th until Wednesday December 24th from 10am until 5pm. On December 19th and 20th, there will be live jazz music, children's entertainment, Santa's Grotto with FREE gift bags. Bring the children along on Saturday December 20th to take part in a live nativity play. No rehearsals necessary, this will be an 'organic' Christmas story, presented by the churches of Acton.

Our Farmers' Market traders will be taking Christmas orders throughout December for large joints of meat, turkeys, pies and other Christmas goodies. There will be FREE mince pies at the Market on Saturday 20th December. Get there early as this is the last Farmers' Market before Christmas. We'll be updating our website regularly with more information so keep checking www.actonmarket.co.uk.

And from all of us at Acton Market and Action Acton, a very Happy Festive Season to all and thank you for supporting the Acton Market.

The Pitch...

If you haven't seen the fruit and veg stall at Acton Market, you'll certainly have heard it. You'll have heard Richard Webster shouting his wares in traditional London style. He's been a regular feature at Acton Market since September selling fruit and veg at reasonable prices. You could say that the Websters have been a fixture in Acton since long before even the Market started. Both his father and Grandfather ran fruit and veg shops in Acton, one in Crown Street and in South Acton. Richard will have the usual range of fruit and veg at the Market this month, as well as Christmas trees and nuts.
