Sunday Market Launches on 6th April

This month sees the start of a weekly Sunday Market on The Mount. Traders will be on hand from Sunday, April 6th from 10am until 5pm selling everything from food to fashion. The Sunday Market will have a different feel than the Saturday Market, with hot food stalls, fruit and veg sellers, antique jewellery and a bouncy castle for children. We're very excited about this launch and hope to see everyone from the Acton community and beyond.

Changing Faces at Acton Market

Alex Watson, the Acton Market Project Manager has left Action Acton for new frontiers. She would like to say a big thank you for everyone who has been supporting the Market. The new Acton Town Centre Market Regeneration Project Manager will be John Kester. The new Saturday Market Manager is Vanessa Tobiasinsky, whom you may have seen at the Market. Do contact Vanessa if you are interested in taking a stall at the Saturday Market. The Sunday Market Manager is Sajida Bibi.

Welcome back to Martin Yorworth, locally known as 'Martin the Fish Man', whose stall at the Saturday Farmer's Market is a local favourite. Martin's back on track after a bout of poor health and says he feels like a celebrity. Martin's catch is always fresh, and he's one of the few local fisherman around. For more information, check out the article on Martin in TimeOut: <http://www.timeout.com/london/restaurants/features/4301/2.html>

Plant Fair on Saturday 26th April

This will be a highlight of this month's activities at Acton Market. With a wide selection of nurseries at the fair, the choice in plants will be huge, saving you the annual trek to garden centres. Independent specialist nurseries will be selling everything from grasses to cacti; the growers will be on hand to give you enthusiastic and expert advice. Many growers sell at the Chelsea and Hampton Court shows so really know their stuff. Whether you're after unusual perennials, herbs and cut flowers or spring bedding we will have everything you need, plus all your regular farmers and food producers.
